

The 36th Annual CCSC Eastern Regional Conference

October 9-10, 2020

Hood College, Frederick, MD

The CCSC Eastern Conference is designed to promote the exchange of information among educators at all levels of the computing sciences, including 4-year and 2-year colleges as well as sessions of interest to K-12 educators. The conference spans all computing disciplines, including computer science, computational science, information systems, information technology, and beyond, and provides an affordable regional forum for the exchange of ideas and information concerning computing and computing curricula in smaller academic institutions.

Please consider participating in this year's conference!

Scholarly Papers*	Peer reviewed and published in the Journal of Computing Sciences in Colleges and the ACM Digital Library. There is an award for best paper.
Faculty and Student Posters	Abstracts may be printed in the Journal of Computing Sciences in Colleges or in the conference program. There are awards for best faculty and student posters
Undergraduate Student Research	A limited number of sessions are available for students to present their research. There is an award for best student paper. Student papers are not published.
Workshops, Panels, and Tutorials	Workshops (2.5 hours) and Tutorials (75 minutes) provide instruction to participants. Panels offer varied views on a specific topic and allow for discussion.
Nifty Ideas/ Lightning Talks	Nifty Ideas and lightning talks are short presentations of an assignment or technique that is helpful in the classroom.
Programming Contest	A collegiate programming contest for undergraduate programming teams. Awards are given to the top 3 teams.

*Accepted faculty papers are published in the Journal of Computing Sciences in Colleges and the ACM Digital Library. Digital Object Identifiers (DOIs) will be available for all papers. Papers must be presented by a registered participant at the conference or will be removed from the journal and ACM Digital Library.
